Report of the Conway Police Court

FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 15, 1908

We respectfully submit the following:

Whole number of cases presented and passed upon was 73, classified as follows:

Assault,	4
Larceny,	2
Slander,	2
Keeping disorderly house,	1
Trustee process,	7
Violation of liqour laws,	18
Drunkenness,	38
	72

And one juvenile case, special docket, as required by law.

Our docket shows that but 7 of the arrests for drunkenness were from bona fide citizens of the town. The 2 cases for slander, that for keeping a disorderly house, and 10 of those for violation of the liquor laws, were against citizens of adjoining towns, which show that residents of Conway, who we believe are above the average for law abiding citizens, are responible for but a small per cent. of the cases brought before the police court.

During the past year there has been paid to the County Treasurer the sum of $350, the amount received in fines for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. GIBSON, Justice

H. B. FIFIELD, Special Justice

State of New Hampshire.

School Report

In our report for this fiscal year, we claim that there has been a general improvement in the schools throughout the school district In some of our schools where there have been frequent changes of teachers, the best results have not been obtained, and such results cannot be obtained where a new teacher has to be secured every term, as has been in the case in one of our schools particularly. This condition is due largely to the low salaries paid the teachers in the rural schools. If a teacher makes a success of one of the rural schools she is sure of having a better opportunity offered her. One in which the location is more desirable. and a school paying more wages. The past year has been the first in the history of Teachers' Agencies when the demand has exceeded the supply. The Agencies were not able to supply enough teachers to meet the the demand made upon them. Not only have the Board to contend with this condition, but there has been a general advance in wages paid the teachers. We feel that the School District of Conway needs just as good teachers as are available, but in order to hire this class we have got to pay them a larger yearly salary than heretofore. Such a salary as will keep them with us. We cannot expect a teacher to stay here for two or three dollars less per week than she can get elsewhere. A good teacher should be kept as long as that teacher does efficient work, because every change means a loss of time in the new teacher becoming familiar with the work, whereas the one who has been teaching can take up the work just where it was laid down the preceding term. Conway has as a whole a very efficient corps of teachers, but they cannot be retained at the paesent wages paid them. There have been some changes in the teaching corps during the last year. but we feel that the School District has not lost by securing Mrs. Ella F. Hasty in the Conway Center grammar school, and Miss Frances L. Southard in the primary at North Conway. Miss Marion E. Holmes as assistant at the North Conway grammar school has given excellent satisfaction.

The cost per week of maintaining the schools has increased this year in spite of every effort on the part of the Board to keep the expenses down. This is due to increased transportation charges and larger salaries paid some of the teachers. And for this reason, even though more State money was received, the Board was unable to lengthen the school year. In order to maintain the present standard of our schools a larger appropriation should be made to meet the increased running expenses. And the Board trusts that those interested in our schools will see that this is done. Again the incidental expenses have increaed this year almost entirely by the expense incurred in securing teachers.

Our rural schools are becoming more of a problem than ever. It is impossible to get the same results in these schools that we get in the village schools, because we cannot get the same amount of interest aroused, and we cannot retain good teachers in this class of schools. A teacher who gets good results there is sure of a better opportunity elsewhere. The teachers use them as mere stepping stones to graded schools, because with that experience, no matter how much of it, they do not get the same standing they do from having taught in the graded school. Again, the cost per capita for maintenance is greater than in the village schools. This is an argument for concentration. The South Conway school and Echo Lake school are of this class, aud it is recommended that these schools be discontinued later.

The North Conway grammar school graduated as its class of 1907: Raymond W. Pert, Etta M. Willey, Mildred G. Mudgett, Helen E. Ward, Una G. Wllley, Anna B. Carter, Mary L. Munroe, Lucy E. Carter, and Harry D. Bunker. Class motto: "Conquering and still to conquer."

Conway grammar school graduated Gladys P. Knox, Frances E. Eastman, and Edith M. Keith. Motto: "Finem Respice."

Conway Center grammar school graduated Theresa S. McLoy, Esther I. Potter, Ruth M. Sawyer, Ralph W. Garland, George W Towle, Howard C. Thoits, and Thomas S. Masterton. Class motto: "No steps backward."

Redstone grammar school graduated Irene E. Miller and Willis T. Pengelly. Class motto: "Strive to excel."

The above list shows the additional number completing the course of study offered in our schools, the essays being of a high order for students of the tenth grade to have prepared. Several of these graduates have entered Fryeburg Academy or other preparatory schools.

SCHOOL FURNITURE.

The Board recommend that additional blackboards be placed in the grammar room of No. 8, and that new desks be placed in the same room. The desks there have been repaired until it is a waste of money to expend further repairs on them, and again there are not enough to seat the scholars there. These were removed from the other building and are in very bad shape. New seats are also needed in the Conway Center primary school, and two new teachers' desks are needed.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Ella F. Hasty and the scholars at Conway Center a piano has been installed in the grammar room at Conway Center.

REPAIRS.

Windows have been placed in the south end of the North Conway grammar school and intermediate rooms, making a decided improvement in the light of these rooms. The McMillan and No. 8 buildings were given two coats of paint and Conway Center building one, also the interior of No. 8 was gone over, thus placing these buildings in the best of condition. The tax payer will note that considerable has been expended for putting in of glass in the McMillan school. This is due to glass broken outside of school hours, and so far as the Board can ascertain, by those not attending school. The Board have made every effort to put a stop to this both by personal efforts and appeals to the proper authorities, but without avail.

The interior of Redstone and of South Conway school-houses need repairs, also some repairs are needed at the West Side school-house.

During the winter of 1906 and 1907, the furnace at the Center, which for some time had been doing service for only one room, gave out entirely and a stove was put into the grammar room. With the present scarcity of wood it is a matter of time when a new heating apparatus must be installed in this school house.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction advised the Board this year that high school tuition was not to be paid out of the school fund, but that a special appropriation must be made for the same, so there will be about $100.00 due next June including what is now overdue. And besides there will be what may accrue the coming year. It will be necessary to make an appropriation to cover this liability. The school district is liable for the tuition of every student going out o this town to any high school or academy in this State not exceeding $40.00 per student. Now, so long as this may reach a large sum, and in fact would have at time recently in the past, if the majority of our students attending high schools had gone to high schools within the State and applied for this help, the Board are of the oppinion that rather than to have to make these special appropriations from year to year, and to which the school district cannot set a limit, the school district had better appropriate a sufficient sum to establish and maintain a high school of its own. This will do away with any further liability for high school tuition.

We wish to sincerely thank each and every one who have in any way assisted us in making the schools what they are at the present time, and sincerely hope that this co-operation may continue to increase to that extent, that Conway schools will stand second to none.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR E. KENISON,
JOHN C. L. WOOD,
ABBIE M. D. BLOUIN,
School Board of Conway.

Report of Public Libraries.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY AT CONWAY CENTER.

Nothing of especial interest has transpired at this Library during the year. No part of the appropriation for 1907 has come to us here Upon our reading table have been found regularly: Ladies Home Journal, Womans Home Companion, Good Housekeeping, Mrs. J. E. Morrill generously continuing the subscription for the Outlook. In October Mrs. W. J. Comstock, from New Haven, Conn., a resident of the summer colony on the shores of Pequaket Lake, gave a year's subscription for St. Nicholas. Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Petrie we have each month Success, and Miss Edna Thoits is giving us the Youth's Companion. These magazines are all eagerly sought for by the patrons of the Library.

Mr and Mrs. G. W. Patterson of Boston, again showed their interest in us by adding to our collection seventeen new books.

Mrs. James E. Nesmith of Lowell, presented two books, and Mrs. W. J. Comstock gave money with which se en books have been added. From fines we have also added five books, thus making for the year an addition of thirty-one books. The patronage has been also increased, the following being a record of the book circulation for the year ending Dec. 31, 1907: 1691 fiction, 949 juvenile, 187 miscellaneous, a total of 2827.

We most heartily thank each and all who have contributed in any way to the prosperity of this little Library, feeling assured that the "bread thus cast upon the waters will return" many fold.

Very respectfully submitted,

ABBIE M. D. BLOUIN, Librarian.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN OF CONWAY PUBLIC LIBRARY AT CONWAY, N. H., FOR YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1907.

The work at the Library has been much the same as in previous years. 231 books have been added to the Library by the trustees from the Eastman fund; 9 books have been bought with fines, and 46 have been given by other friends of the Library. The total circulation for the year, was 5614: 3486 fiction, 1844 juvenile, the remainder divided among other classes.

From June 1, 1907, the Library has been open daily. The same friends of previous years have given books, magazines and papers to the Library. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. A, C Kennett, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Clark, Mrs. H. B. Fifield, Mrs E. A. Fifield, Mrs. R. B. Shaw, Mrs. D. E Pendexter, Mr. N. B. Macomber, Mr. Frank Seavey, Mrs. Susie Gordon, Mrs P. H. Knowlton, Mrs. Arthur Richardson, Louise E. Through the kindness of the editor, The White Mountain Reporter is on the reading table; Mr. B. F. Clark provides The Munsey Magazine; Mrs. Orcutt, The Christian Science Sentinel; the daily papers, The Cosmopolitan, The Technical World, and The American Boy are provided from fines; The Delineator is gi en by Mrs. Mary Redlon.

We wish to extend our thanks to all for their kindly aid and interest.
